WHAT HAPPENS TO A PURGED FAMILY?

04

Mother's pastry shop is confiscated. Bank account is frozen.

05

06

Father's name is on the government lists, nobody hires him.

02

09

position at a university by a aovernment decree.

They want to start a new life in another country, but their passports are cancelled.

07

Their medical insurance is cancelled. Handicapped son is denied treatment at hospitals.

Mother is sexually harassed during detention.

Daughter's school is shut down by the government.

Mother - Shop owner Daughter - High School student Son - Handicapped

08

His bank account is frozen, assets are confiscated.

Father's name is still on the government lists, nobody hires him.

01

Father is arrested by the special court because of being a subscriber to Zaman Daily and having a bank account at Bank Asya.

Father is kept in solidary confinement for three moths without access to his lawyer and family. Heavily tortured to force confession.

8 mo. pregnant mother is detained for donating to Kimse Yok Mu. a charity organization.

She is denied medical treatment in her last months of pregnancy. She gave birth in custody while chained to the bed.

16

The day after the delivery, she is put back in prison with her newborn baby.

Landlord forces them to get out of their home.

Judge threated to send the children to a foster care center. A relative assumes responsibility.

Thousands of families have been devastated due to the crackdown after the July 15. This diagram is an example of what families go through due to unlawful dismissals, detentions, arrests, and tortures since July 2016.