Alliance for Shared Values message on International Human Solidarity Day

The Alliance for Shared Values joins the United Nations and the international community to mark International Human Solidarity Day, which celebrates unity in diversity, a respect for human rights and efforts to eradicate poverty.

Hizmet participants hold as core values a respect for diversity and pluralism, civic engagement and contribution to society, and a respect for human beings and fundamental human rights. They act on these values through education initiatives, interfaith dialogue and humanitarian aid, among other activities.

We remain committed to these values and celebrate them as essential to the idea and practice of human solidarity.
